Agenda 1- To consider and approve six papers for Integrated BA-MA in Mass Communication initially (Launched from the Session 2022-23) in the Department of Mass Communication.

Resolutions: The Department of Mass Communication, has launched Integrated BA-MA in Mass Communication from the session 2022-23 as per mandate of National Education Policy 2020. Accordingly a detailed structure of Course Curriculum was prepared and approved by the academic bodies previously. However, a uniform format has been prepared and shared among all the departments from the Office of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and Dean of Academic Affairs (DAA) and has given instruction to offer/begin with Introductory Courses (IC) and/or Introductory Courses Vocational (ICV) until the Model Curriculum Format for all the Integrated Programs is prepared.

The departments has begun with four (04) Introductory Courses (ICs) and two (02) Introductory Courses Vocational (ICV), which is as follows:

Introductory Course (IC)	Introductory Course Vocational (ICV)
• Understanding Media	• Photography
• Communication, Society and Culture	• Introduction to Print Production
• Media & Information Literacy
• Film Appreciation

The components of Introductory Courses (IC) and Introductory Courses Vocational (ICV) were presented by Prof. Dev Vrat Singh for discussion and suggestions among the experts of Board of Studies. After detailed discussion, these courses were approved with few suggestions/modifications and accordingly they may be offered during the First Three Semesters of Integrated BA-MA in Mass Communication as and when required.
